

In my opinion of working with smaller local ISP's as a Systems Manager, Computer Instructor and user of both small independant ISP's and larger conglomerate ISPs such as ATG, SBC, Comcast and others, the common thread is you loose all control over your connection, you loose the ability to have your account easily maintained and you loose the responsibility that comes from working with smaller ISP's.

Please continue to allow the small ISP's to operate as they currently are.